PATIENT GUIDE · OCTOBER 2026

VERMONT MEDICAL CARD CHECKLIST.

State fees, who qualifies, documents, timeline and renewal, in one place.

Everything you need to get, and keep, a Vermont medical cannabis card. Two things make Vermont different: your certifying visit must be in person, and your card lasts three years.

TOTAL COST	CARD VALIDITY	TIME TO CARD	APPLY
$249	3 years	4 to 6 wks	To the CCB
$199 Veriheal + $50 state	$50 fee per application or renewal	Board decides within 30 days, then mails	Vermont Cannabis Control Board

01 Do you qualify?

You can apply if every statement below is true. The Vermont registry is for Vermont residents.

- ☐ You are 18 or older. Patients under 18 can apply with a parent or guardian and a registered caregiver (21 or older).
- ☐ You are a Vermont resident with a Vermont driver's license or state ID, plus a recent color photo.
- ☐ You have a qualifying condition: cancer, multiple sclerosis, HIV/AIDS, glaucoma, Crohn's disease, ulcerative colitis, Parkinson's disease or PTSD, or a chronic condition that causes cachexia, chronic pain, severe nausea or seizures.
- ☐ A health care professional who knows you completes the Health Care Professional Verification Form after an in-person visit. The state asks for a relationship of at least 3 months, with some exceptions.

02 What it costs

Veriheal's fee covers the consultation, physician copay and medical evaluation. The non-refundable $50 registry fee is paid to the Vermont Cannabis Control Board.

03 Documents to have ready

- ☐ Vermont driver's license or state ID.
- ☐ A recent front-facing color photo for your card. A photo of your license is not accepted.
- ☐ Health Care Professional Verification Form, completed at your visit and sent to the Board before you apply.
- ☐ Patient registry application, with your grow address if you plan to grow at home.
- ☐ Caregiver details if applicable, and payment for the $50 fee.

04 Timeline

Book the in-person visit first; everything else follows from that appointment.

DAY 0	Consultation. In-person visit with a licensed Vermont provider, usually 10 to 15 minutes. If approved, your verification form is completed the same day.
DAY 1 TO 3	Apply to the state. Submit the registry application, ID, photo and $50 fee to the Cannabis Control Board.
UP TO 30 DAYS	Board review. The Board decides within 30 days of a complete application, then mails your card.
CARD IN HAND	Visit a medical dispensary. Registered patients pay 0% tax against 20% for adult use, and can buy up to 2 oz.

Home grow: registered patients may grow up to 6 mature and 12 immature plants. Cards last three years, so put your renewal date in your calendar now.

05 Renewal reminders

Vermont cards last three years. Renewal needs a new verification form, a new photo and the $50 fee, so start early.

Medical cannabis is available to qualifying patients under applicable state law and requires a consultation with a licensed provider. This checklist is a general guide, not medical or legal advice; your provider will walk you through the details for your state at your consultation. Fees, timelines and requirements are set by the state and can change; figures were checked against state program guidance in October 2026. Cannabis has not been evaluated by the FDA and remains a controlled substance under federal law. © 2026 Veriheal Inc. · 855-452-6224 · info@veriheal.com
